Thanks for the reminder. I should not have any difficulty meeting the August 27 deadline.

Yes. Do you have a rough idea about length? I can make it long or short.

Hi Steve,

I read on the ASA community where you gave a talk about finding customers for your consulting business. Would it be possible for you to write a summary of your webinar for our website STATtrak. The site is for new professionals who are starting out as statisticians—and consulting is a topic I would like to cover more.

If you would prefer to write about something else, such as starting your own business as a consultant, that would work great too.

I won't need the article until August 27. Please email me and let me know if this is something you are willing to do?
